

Pattern for Shino gote forearms. (Actual size)

Depending on what your plans are, the small holes in the splint edges can be for attaching mail (to join the splints) or for small "stitches" of thread to hold the splints to the fabric foundation.

The general spacing here is 1/4" – 3/8" between splints, but you can use more or less as you need.

